News Around Town

By Mrs. Calvin Robinson

M/Sgt. Clarence W. Mitchell, who recently spent a month's leave here with his mother, Mrs. Rosa Mitchell, has arrived in Orleans, France, where he will be stationed.

Father Darkleaf and I motored to Richmond Friday and visited K. E. Coleman, who is a patient at McGuire Veteran's Hospital. We are happy to report that he is doing nicely. Seemed to us that 'Red' had gained a bit of weight.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Robertson and son, Kenneth, of Lovingston, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gunter, of Liberty Chapel, recently visited Chincoteague Island and attended the famous Pony Penning and festival.

It's nice to meet and chat with old friends . . . especially when you are away from home. Monday, I was in Lynchburg and chanced to meet up with old friends: Marian and Ted Gills. The Gills were on their way to their home in Bluefield after a vacation at Nags Head, N. C. We found so much to recall about old days in Appomattox.

The little fry have started helping Father Darkleaf with his collections for our big basement "museum" at home. Recently Linda Earle Barron brought him a lovely peacock feather she had found at the Norfolk zoo. And hardly a day goes by that he doesn't get a donation of an arrow head or some other item he collects. He says, however, he has about enough of the small soap bars you get in hotels and motor courts. His total is now over 300.

On a recent trip we brought home with us a large Boston Pie Squash. It was entirely too beautiful to cut and risk making into a pie. We sat it out in the front yard instead!

Cpl. Emmett Austin, son of Mrs. Rena Austin, of Appomattox, has received his discharge, and arrived home Saturday night. Cpl. Austin served three years in the Army, and was stationed in Okinawa for two years.

Sandra Faye Robertson underwent a tonsillectomy at the Virginia Baptist Hospital today.

Appomattox is eagerly awaiting the arrival of Misses Annie Hancock and Ann Abbitt, who arrived in New York this morning from Europe on the S. S. Constitution. They have been making the grand continental tour for the past eight weeks, as members of the Cooks Picturesque Tour. Won't they have lots to relate!

Miss Shawn Mabley will leave next month to enroll as a freshman student at Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She was a 1956 graduate at A. H. S.

The Rev. Charles Norfleet will leave Monday for a vacation at his home in Norfolk. Upon his return he will occupy an apartment in the new Professional Building on Court Street, as of September 1.

CHURCH NEWS

REVIVAL AT BETHANY

AUGUST 16 - 26

Mrs. Juanita Williams, a native of Hendersonville, N. C., will conduct a revival at the Bethany Pentecostal Holiness Church August 16, 26.

Mrs. Williams is the wife of the Rev. R. N. Williams, pastor of the Broad Street Pentecostal Holiness Church, Altavista, Va. They have served pastorates in North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

Mrs. Williams attended the East Tennessee State College, Lynchburg College, and at present holds a position in the Campbell County public school system. She has been engaged as a speaker for various church and civic organizations for several years. She was an early pioneer in the field of women's work for the church and served as its first president. Mrs. Williams has a wide appreciation for art and poetry and has received some recognition in poetry from state and oldest fine arts festival in the state of North Carolina. She has had poetry published, as well as other works.

Her messages will be logical, scriptural, inspirational and a challenge to all. All would do well to hear her.
